

Mazda customers smile with Ramadan Lucky Strike Offer

The Mazda showroom at Athaiba is gleaming with the festive spirit. Balloons, ribbons and embellishments in the Mazda signature colours adorn the showroom. The mood is all cheery and customers really satisfied with the ongoing Ramadan Lucky Strike Offer.

Jayprakash Naik, working with Mott Macdonald, is one such satisfied Mazda customer. He availed of the Ramadan offer and recently bought himself a top end, 2 litre, black Mazda6. Naik became interested in the Mazda family when he saw numerous of his colleagues driving Mazdas. So when it came to buying his own car, Naik found Mazda6 to be his apt choice, even without test driving one.

“I have driven many of my friends’ Mazda cars, so I was aware of the features and feel of the brand. I especially considered it because of the touch of luxury a Mazda provides at a great deal and an interest rate that was better than any other offer in the market,” says Naik.

Once you’ve laid your hands on a Mazda, it’s hard to resist it. Shakir Nasser Saleem Al Hadhrami just could not. Shakir, a teacher working with the Ministry of Education, had visited every car showroom in the city and finally chose himself a stunning Mazda 3 Sport. “I found the car sporty, strong and spacious – all the features I was looking for in my dream car,” says a delighted Shakir, who has been recommending his car to his colleagues and friends.
