

Test drive a Mazda 6 and you could be the winner of the iPods on offer
First winner of an iPod announced

If you've always dreamt about owning the classy and stylish Mazda6, now might be the best time to try your hands on it. Walk into any Mazda's Athaiba or Wattayah showroom and you could take a test drive in a Mazda6. Those test driving the lavish car are also in for a big surprise, as they may well be the winner of one of the iPods on offer.

The first to take an iPod home was Ahmed Suleiman Ibrahim Sadaka. Ahmed had always cherished a Mazda6 and this offer further lured him into a test drive. "I was happy driving the Mazda6, which has a great performance and looks. Winning the iPod came as a special surprise," says Ahmed.

The Mazda6 is sure to get any car enthusiast excited with its bold, sporty styling; excellent handling and a high level of ride comfort for occupants. The vehicle's clever packaging, roomy interior and quality craftsmanship have proved popular with customers, earning high praise and numerous awards since its debut.

The Mazda6 was the first new generation model reflecting the Zoom-Zoom brand ethos that has been infused in successive Mazda models. It has won over 110 global automotive awards, including Japan's prestigious RJC Car of the Year Award in 2003. It has gone on to receive accolades from both media and customers the world over and still posts strong sales results to date. It is one of the fastest growing Mazda vehicles, which has reached one million units of production in as short a span of time as four years and one month.

"We have always boasted about Mazda6. We want more and more enthusiasts to try their hands on this wonderful car that is a rare combination of power, good looks and smooth performance," says Annurag Chawla, Brand Manager, Mazda.

Test drive a world class Mazda6 and feel the joy of a great ride. And if you're lucky, you could also win one of remaining iPods waiting to be grabbed.
